

Increased Productivity Through Partnerships

Complementing your internal resources at the right time, with the right skills, while your teams focus on your core business, is an essential part of running an efficient & competitive business. It doesn't matter if your company is a mid-size enterprise or a small business. Keeping cost down and delivering products and services to your customers on time is an essential ingredient in maintaining a competitive edge.

If you are looking to augment your resources for a particular project, Shaantek Consultants can provide you with the skills and talent you need. Over the past 12 years Shaantek Consultants have been providing Technology and IT consulting services to a wide range of industries. Customers range from AT&T, HP to small start-ups like PBI, a small local biomedical company providing PC base ECG equipment. Our services span a wide range i.e. from custom Hardware Solutions to custom Application Software, to System Solutions like network security, CRM and mobility. We realize that our client needs are different and diverse, therefore our projects engagements span the range- short term assignments like design reviews, technology evaluation & assessment, to full cycle turn-key project involving design-development-deployment.

3 CRITICAL characteristics To Demand From your IT Consultants Does Yours Stack Up?

1. Expertise: In today's rapidly changing business environment, do your consultants provide the most effective and efficient solutions? Shaantek has consulted to a wide range of industries such as telecom, military, biomedical, industrial, financial etc and can bring a vast knowledge base to address your needs.
2. Timely delivery: Having the experience to bring to the table, to provide a timely solution is essential. Shaantek has been serving clients for the past 12-years in a wide range of projects delivering projects on time and on budget.
3. Fee Policies: Your consultant should help you solve your problems and not be the source of them! Unfortunately some firms "conceal" certain charges until it is too late. Shaantek provides a clearly defined statement of work and cost structure in its project agreements avoiding last minute surprises.
